

Fiserv and Western Alliance Bank Form Strategic Alliance to Power High-Impact Commerce Experiences for Clients

March 17, 2026

New collaboration broadens access to Clover all-in-one commerce solution and bolsters Fiserv's regional footprint and specialized industry reach

MILWAUKEE, March 17, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), a leading global provider of payments and financial services technology, today announced an agent bank partnership with Western Alliance Bank (NYSE: WAL) that will bring preeminent commerce and business management technology, including Clover, to the bank's clients. Together, Western Alliance Bank's tailored banking experience with the scale of the Fiserv product ecosystem will establish a new benchmark for how leading financial institutions deliver specialized, tech-forward merchant solutions to complex commercial industries.

"Banks differentiate themselves by the technology they put in their clients' hands," said Chris Foskett, Vice Chairman at Fiserv. "Our alliance with Western Alliance Bank extends proven, scalable commerce capabilities to businesses that demand reliability, performance, and growth at scale."

Uniquely positioned at the intersection of financial institutions and small businesses, Fiserv provides market-leading merchant technology that will empower Western Alliance Bank to offer a high-performance commerce experience to its client base, which ranges from small businesses to large-scale national enterprises. This collaboration marks the largest agent bank partnership in Fiserv's history by asset size and expands its regional bank footprint in the Western United States, where Western Alliance Bank's national commercial banking operations are headquartered.

"Aligning with Fiserv enables us to bring best-in-class merchant solutions to our clients while maintaining the high-touch relationship and specialized industry expertise Western Alliance is known for," said Steve Curley, Chief Banking Officer, National Business Lines at Western Alliance Bank. "This collaboration strengthens our ability to support businesses with secure, modern payment technology while offering scalable solutions across in-store, online and mobile payment channels."
