You should rely on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. We have not authorized anyone to provide different information. THE COMPANY

We provide integrated data processing and information management systems to more than 13,000 financial services providers, including banks, broker-dealers, credit unions, financial planners and investment advisers, insurance companies and agents, leasing companies, mortgage lenders and savings institutions. We operate centers in the United States for full-service financial data processing, software system development, item processing and check imaging, technology support and related product businesses. Our operations are principally domestic and in 2002 international operations constituted approximately 5% of total processing and services revenues through business support centers in Argentina, Australia, Canada, Colombia, Indonesia, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, Poland, Singapore and the United Kingdom.

We were formed in 1984 through the combination of two major regional data processing firms that began as the data processing operations of their parent financial institutions. Historically, these firms expanded operations by developing a range of services for their parent organizations, as well as other financial institutions. Since our organization, we have grown by developing specialized services and products and product enhancements, adding new clients and acquiring firms complementing our organization.

Our headquarters are located at 255 Fiserv Drive, Brookfield, Wisconsin 53045, telephone (262) 879-5000. We were incorporated as a Delaware corporation in 1984, and reincorporated as a Wisconsin corporation in 1992.

RISK FACTORS

Shareholders, potential investors and other readers should consider the following risk factors carefully in making any investment decision regarding our common stock. If any of these risk factors come to pass, there could be a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or future results of operations leading to a decline in the trading price of our common stock and a potential substantial loss in the value of your investment in our common stock.

OUR ACQUISITION STRATEGY SUBJECTS US TO RISKS, INCLUDING INCREASED DEBT, ASSUMPTION OF UNFORESEEN LIABILITIES AND DIFFICULTIES IN INTEGRATING OPERATIONS.

A major contributor to our growth in revenues and net income since inception has been our ability to identify, acquire and integrate similar or complementary businesses. We may not be able to identify suitable acquisition candidates in the future, which could adversely affect our growth. Businesses we acquire may perform worse than expected or be more difficult to integrate and manage than expected, which could adversely affect our business and financial results. These risks may arise for a number of reasons:

- o We may not be able to find suitable businesses to acquire at affordable valuations or on other acceptable terms;
- o We face competition for acquisitions from other potential acquirors;
- o We may need to borrow more money from lenders or sell equity or debt securities to the public to finance future acquisitions and the terms of these financings may be adverse to us;
- o Changes in accounting, tax, securities or other regulations could increase the difficulty or cost for us to complete acquisitions;
- o We may incur unforeseen obligations or liabilities in connection with acquisitions;
- o We may need to devote unanticipated financial and management resources to an acquired business;

- o We may not realize expected operating efficiencies or product integration benefits from an acquisition;
- o We could enter markets where we have minimal prior experience; and
- o We may experience decreases in earnings as a result of non-cash impairment charges.

OUR SECURITIES CLEARING BUSINESS SUBJECTS US TO RISKS OF CLIENT DEFAULTS, WHICH MAY RESULT IN MATERIAL LOSSES.

We have in the past and may in the future experience losses due to customer defaults and alleged fraudulent trading activities to the extent we cannot collect these losses from the correspondents or their customers. Our securities clearing business enters contracts with its broker-dealer clients, which are called "correspondents" or "introducing brokers," to process transactions, clear trades and handle record-keeping for these correspondents and their customers. Our contracts with correspondents generally allocate risk of loss from us to the correspondent and its customers for their trading activities. However, if the correspondent defaults under its contracts with us and does not meet its contractual commitments, then we assume the obligations resulting from the trading activities of the correspondent and its customers. For example, a correspondent recently allegedly manipulated our order entry system by sending to us through a computer network link-up non-existent, non-consummated trades. We recorded a pre-tax loss of $17 million as a result of that activity after the correspondent went out of business, which left us with open, uncovered short-trading accounts primarily in one security whose value increased dramatically immediately prior to the correspondent ceasing to do business. At December 31, 2002, we had approximately $1.7 billion of securities processing receivables from the 2.9 million accounts we hold on behalf of our more than 400 correspondents.

OUR SECURITIES CLEARING BUSINESS CAN BE SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECTED BY DIRECT AND INDIRECT GOVERNMENTAL REGULATION, WHICH REDUCES OUR FLEXIBILITY AND INCREASES THE COSTS OF DOING BUSINESS.

Our securities clearing business is subject to extensive regulatory oversight principally by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., or NYSE, and also by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and state agencies. From time to time, the NYSE reviews or audits our securities clearing business' procedures and policies and sometimes requires changes to those procedures resulting in higher costs or reduced flexibility in operating our business and, in some instances, the payment of fines. Other results of these audits or our failure to comply with applicable laws, rules or regulations could include fines, suspension or revocation of our licenses or registrations, including broker-dealer licenses and registrations, or expulsion from membership in the NYSE, any one of which could materially affect our ability to conduct our securities business and operations.

(1) The amount shown is less than 1% of the outstanding shares of common stock.

The selling shareholders acquired the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus from us as consideration for our acquisition of Trewit Inc. as of November 30, 2001. None of the selling shareholders has had a material relationship with us within the past three years other than as a result of the ownership of our common stock or other securities of ours or as a result of their employment with a subsidiary of ours following the closing of our acquisition of Trewit Inc.

DIVIDEND POLICY

We have not paid cash dividends on our common stock and do not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future. Our existing long-term debt instruments contain provisions limiting the amount of cash dividends we can pay on our common stock.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

Our authorized capital stock consists of 450,000,000 shares of common stock and 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock. As of July 3, 2003, 193,421,403 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding and no shares of our preferred stock were issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

Subject to Section 180.1150 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law (described below under "Statutory Provisions"), holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held by them on all matters properly presented to shareholders. Subject to the prior rights of the holders of any shares of our preferred stock that are outstanding, our Board of Directors may at its discretion declare and pay dividends on our common stock out of our earnings or assets legally available for the payment of dividends. See "Dividend Policy." Subject to the prior rights of the holders of any shares of our preferred stock that are outstanding, if we are liquidated, any amounts remaining after the discharge of outstanding indebtedness will be paid pro rata to the holders of our common stock. The shares of common stock offered by the selling shareholders by this prospectus are legally issued, fully paid and nonassessable, except for certain statutory liabilities that may be imposed by Section 180.0622(2)(b) of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law for unpaid employee wages.

Preferred Stock

Our Board of Directors is authorized to issue our preferred stock in series and to fix the voting rights; the designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights of any series with respect to the rate of dividend, the price, the terms and conditions of redemption; the amounts payable in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation; sinking fund provisions for redemption or purchase of a series; and the terms and conditions on which a series may be converted.

In connection with the issuance of the rights described below, our Board of Directors has authorized a series of our preferred stock designated as series A junior participating preferred stock. Shares of our series A junior participating preferred stock purchasable upon the exercise of the rights will not be redeemable. Each share of our series A junior participating preferred stock will be entitled to an aggregate dividend of 225 times the dividend we declare per share of our common stock. In the event of our liquidation, the holders of the shares of our series A junior participating preferred stock will be entitled to a minimum aggregate payment of $1.00 per share but will be entitled to an aggregate payment of 225 times the payment we make per share of our common stock. Each share of our series A junior participating preferred stock will have 225 votes, voting together with our common stock. Finally, in the event of any merger, consolidation or other transaction in which shares of our common stock are exchanged, each share of our series A junior participating preferred stock will be entitled to receive 225 times the amount received per share of our common stock. These rights are protected by customary antidilution provisions. There are no shares of our series A junior participating preferred stock currently outstanding.

The issuance of any series of our preferred stock, including the series A junior participating preferred stock, may have an adverse effect on the rights of holders of our common stock, and could decrease the amount of earnings and assets available for distribution to holders of our common stock. In addition, any issuance of our preferred stock could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control.

Preferred Stock Purchase Rights

We have entered into a rights agreement pursuant to which each outstanding share of our common stock, including the shares being sold by the selling shareholders in the offering, has attached one right to purchase shares of our series A junior participating preferred stock. Each share of our common stock subsequently issued by us prior to the expiration of the rights agreement will likewise have attached one right. Under circumstances described below, the rights will entitle the holder thereof to purchase additional shares of our common stock. In this prospectus, unless the context otherwise requires, all references to our common stock include the accompanying rights.

Currently, the rights are not exercisable and trade with our common stock. If the rights become exercisable, each right, unless held by a person or group which beneficially owns more than 15% of our outstanding common stock in the aggregate, will initially entitle the holder to purchase 4/9 of one one-hundredth of a share of our series A junior participating preferred stock at a purchase price of $250, subject to adjustment. The rights will only become exercisable if a person or group has acquired, or announced an intention to acquire, 15% or more of our outstanding common stock in the aggregate. Under some circumstances, including the existence of a 15% acquiring party, each holder of a right, other than the acquiring party, will be entitled to purchase at the right's then-current exercise price, shares of our common stock having a market value of two times the exercise price. If another corporation acquires us after a party acquires 15% or more of our common stock, each holder of a right will be entitled to receive the acquiring corporation's common shares having a market value of two times the exercise price. The rights generally may be redeemed at a price of $.01 until a party acquires 15% or more of our common stock, and after that time may be exchanged for one share of our common stock per right until a party acquires 50% or more of our common stock. The rights initially will expire on February 23, 2008. The rights do not have voting or dividend rights and, until they become exercisable, have no dilutive effect on our earnings.

Statutory Provisions

Section 180.1150 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law provides that the voting power of public Wisconsin corporations such as us held by any person or persons acting as a group in excess of 20% of our voting power is limited to 10% of the full voting power of those shares, unless full voting power of those shares has been restored pursuant to a vote of shareholders. Sections 180.1140 to 180.1144 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law contain some limitations and special voting provisions applicable to specified business combinations involving Wisconsin corporations such as us and a significant shareholder, unless the board of directors of the corporation approves the business combination or the shareholder's acquisition of shares before these shares are acquired.

Similarly, Sections 180.1130 to 180.1133 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law contain special voting provisions applicable to some business combinations, unless specified minimum price and procedural requirements are met. Following commencement of a takeover offer, Section 180.1134 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law imposes special voting requirements on share repurchases effected at a premium to the market and on asset sales by the corporation, unless, as it relates to the potential sale of assets, the corporation has at least three independent directors and a majority of the independent directors vote not to have the provision apply to the corporation.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholders, including their donees, pledgees and transferees, may offer and sell shares of common stock offered by this prospectus from time to time and may also decide not to sell all the shares they are allowed to sell under this prospectus. Sales that the selling shareholders do make may be sold in one or more of the following transactions:

- o on the Nasdaq National Market or any other securities exchange or quotation service that lists or quotes the common stock for trading;
- o in the over-the-counter market;
- o in transactions other than on such exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market;
- o in privately negotiated transactions;
- o through put or call option transactions relating to the shares or through short sales of shares; and
- o in a combination of any of the above transactions.

The selling shareholders may sell their shares at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at negotiated prices or at fixed prices. The transactions listed above may include block transactions.

To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended or supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

The selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions. In connection with these transactions, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of the shares of our common stock or of securities convertible into or exchangeable for these shares in the course of hedging positions they assume with the selling shareholders. The selling shareholders may also sell shares short and redeliver shares to close out such short positions. In addition, the selling shareholders may enter into options or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions that require the delivery to these broker-dealers or other financial institutions of the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus, which these broker-dealers or other financial institutions may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as amended or supplemented to reflect such transaction). The selling shareholders also may loan or pledge shares to a broker-dealer. The broker-dealer may sell the shares so loaned, or upon a default the broker-dealer may sell the shares so pledged, pursuant to this prospectus.

We have been advised by the selling shareholders that they have not made any arrangements with any underwriters or broker-dealers relating to the distribution of the shares covered by this prospectus. The selling shareholders may sell their shares directly to purchasers, use broker-dealers to sell their shares or may sell their shares to broker-dealers acting as principals. If this happens, then broker-dealers may either receive discounts or commissions from the selling shareholders, or they may receive commissions from purchasers of shares for whom they acted as agents, or both. This compensation may be in excess of the compensation customary in the type of transactions involved. If a broker-dealer purchases shares as a principal, then it may resell the shares for its own account under this prospectus.

We will pay all registration fees and expenses for the common stock offered by this prospectus. The selling shareholders and any agent, broker or dealer that participates in sales of common stock offered by this prospectus may be deemed "underwriters" under the Securities Act of 1933 and any commissions or other consideration received by any agent, broker or dealer may be considered underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act.

We have agreed to indemnify the selling shareholders against certain liabilities arising under the Securities Act from sales of common stock. Selling shareholders may agree to indemnify any agent, broker or dealer that participates in sales of common stock against liabilities arising under the Securities Act from sales of common stock. Because the selling shareholders may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, the selling shareholders will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. We have informed the selling shareholders that the anti-manipulation provisions of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 may apply to their sales of common stock.

Instead of selling common stock under this prospectus, selling shareholders may sell common stock in compliance with the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available.

We will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act upon being notified by a selling shareholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares of our common stock through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer. Any such supplement will disclose:

- o the name of each such selling shareholder and of the participating broker-dealer(s);
- o the number of shares involved;
- o the price at which such shares were sold;
- o the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer(s), where applicable;
- o that such broker-dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus; and
- o other facts material to the transaction.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered, which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions set forth or described in Item 15 of this registration statement, or otherwise, the registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that:

(1) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective; and

(2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
