The Selling Stockholders are Gary J. Wilson, John M. French, Donald Salcito, and Walter F. Imhoff. The Shares were acquired by the Selling Stockholders pursuant to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger dated September 30, 1997, by and among the Company, Fiserv Clearing, Inc., wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and Hanifen Holdings, Inc. (the "Agreement") pursuant to which Hanifen Holdings was merged into Fiserv Clearing (the "Merger").

Under the Merger Agreement, the Company and Fiserv Clearing have agreed that they will not alter the rights of any person who has a right to indemnification from Hanifen Holdings or Hanifen Imhoff Clearing Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hanifen Holdings ("Clearing") pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of Hanifen Holdings or Clearing, as applicable, in effect on the date of the Agreement. In addition, the Company and Fiserv Clearing agreed to be bound by all determinations made by the Board of Directors of both Hanifen Holdings and Clearing prior to the closing of the Merger, subject to the limitations on indemnification set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Hanifen Holdings and Clearing. Fiserv Clearing agreed to assume the obligations of Hanifen Holdings to provide indemnification to such persons as if such persons were directors of Fiserv Clearing. The Company and Fiserv Clearing also agreed that, to the extent reasonably possible, they would obtain coverage for such persons under their directors and officers' insurance policy or policies. If the scope of indemnity to which such persons are entitled under the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of Hanifen Holdings and Clearing is more beneficial than the right of indemnification provided by Fiserv Clearing, the indemnification obligation of Fiserv Clearing will be expanded to provide such persons with the maximum indemnification rights provided by the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of Hanifen Holdings or Clearing. The Selling Stockholders have not had any position, office or other material relationship within the past three years with the Company or any of its predecessors or affiliates other than as described above.

Any or all of the Shares offered hereby by the Selling Stockholders may be offered and sold to purchasers directly by or on behalf of the Selling Stockholders from time to time in the over-the-counter market, in privately negotiated transactions, or otherwise at prices prevailing in such market or as may be negotiated at the time of the sale. The Shares may also be publicly offered through underwriters, dealers or agents. In such event the Selling Stockholders may enter into agreements with respect to any such offering. Such underwriters, dealers or agents may receive compensation in the form of underwriting discounts, concessions or commissions from the Selling Stockholders and/or the purchasers of the Shares. The Selling Stockholders and any such underwriters, dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the Shares may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act, and any profit on the sale of the Shares by them and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by them may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Any such underwriters, dealers and agents may engage in transactions with, and perform services for, the Company. At the time a particular offer of Shares is made by the Selling Stockholders to the extent required, a Prospectus Supplement will be distributed which will set forth the aggregate number of Shares being offered, and the terms of the offering, including the public offering price of the Shares, the name or names of any underwriters, dealer or agents, any underwriting discounts, commissions and other items constituting compensation from, and the resulting net proceeds to, the Selling Stockholders, any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers and, if applicable, the purchase price to be paid by any underwriter for the Shares purchased from such Selling Stockholder.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, sales of Shares offered hereby to the public in such states may be made only through broker-dealers who are registered or licensed in such states. ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

In general, the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law provides that a corporation shall indemnify directors and officers for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the successful defense of actions arising in connection with their service as directors and officers of the corporation. In other cases, the Wisconsin statute provides that the corporation shall indemnify a director or officer against liability unless the director or officer breached or failed to perform a duty owed to the corporation and such breach or failure meets certain specified criteria constituting, in general, some act of misconduct. In addition, the corporation may reimburse a director or officer for his expenses in defending against actions as they are incurred upon the director's or officer's written request accompanied by a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has not breached or failed to perform his duties to the corporation and a written undertaking to repay amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that indemnification is not required under the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law. A court of law may order that the corporation provide indemnification to a director or officer if it finds that the director or officer is entitled thereto under the applicable statutory provision or is fairly and reasonably entitled thereto in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not such indemnification is required under the applicable statutory provision.

The Wisconsin Business Corporation Law specifies various procedures pursuant to which a director or officer may establish his right to indemnification.

Provided that it is not determined by or on behalf of the corporation that the director or officer breached or failed to perform a duty owed to the corporation and such breach or failure meets certain specified criteria constituting, in general, some act of misconduct, its articles of incorporation or bylaws, by written agreement, by resolution of its board of directors or by a vote of the holders of a majority of its outstanding shares.

The Registrant's Bylaws provide for indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers to the fullest extent provided by the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law. This provision is not exclusive of any other rights to indemnification or the advancement of expenses to which a director or officer may be entitled to under any written agreement, resolution of directors, vote of stockholders, by law or otherwise.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represented a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provision, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
